Cave de Chardonnay “Chardonnay de Chardonnay” Macon-Chardonnay

In the heart of the Maconnais, lies the village of Chardonnay, birthplace of the Chardonnay grape. Truly, it could not have had a better home. Burgundy is the finest place in the world for this noble fruit. In honor of such good fortune, we present you with this unique wine from the same village where it all began.

Located in the village of Chardonnay. They carefully control yields and practice sustainable agriculture. The Cave de Chardonnay has taken great care with these vineyards, protecting the great history of the area. Now, they have decided the time is right to create this special cuvee, selected from the best vineyard sites in Chardonnay. This delicious wine captures the essence of the Chardonnay grape and the wonderful Macon region of Burgundy.

Chardonnay de Chardonnay is full of fresh citrus fruits, pear, apple and an undertone of minerality. Hints of acacia and honey. Crisp and delicious, it has a light creamy texture on the palate and an elegant, fruity finish. This wine is full of delicious, pure Chardonnay character.

Wonderful on its own or married with seafood, chicken, salads and other lighter dishes. Also, try it with light cheeses such as goat cheese.

Vine Age: 30 years old

Soils: Limestone, Clay with a rocky subsoil on South Eastern facing slopes

Area planted: 200 acres

The grapes are hand and mechanically harvested, then pressed in a pneumatic press. The alcoholic fermentation is carried out in temperature controlled stainless steel vats (constant temperature of 16 to 18°C). The malolactic fermentation is completed at 100%. The wine is matured ‘sur lie’ in stainless steel vats.

Light yellow gold. At first the aroma conveys a subtle creaminess, then citrus, delicate white fruits and a stony note. The palate possesses an appealing impression, moderately full with a soft texture, and is very well-balanced. The finale is notably clean with well-integrated acidity. This poised, attractive white offers exemplary quality in a village Mâcon that is quaffable and easy to like.
