The Trusted Choice in Estate Wines

La Berriere

Muscadet, Cotes de Grandlieu, Sur Lie

100% Melon de Bourgogne

This estate bottled wine is produced from vines up to 60 years old on a rocky soil which gives the wine its minerality. Low yields produce the high quality grapes cultivated by Sylvain. After fermentation, the wine remains on their fine lees for at least 6 months with a batonnage every two weeks.

The wine is fresh and has unusual depth and minerality. Thanks to its exceptional terroir, the wine is very floral and will develop fuller flavors with ageing.

Great with Seafood, white meats, cheese or on its own.

Bright pronounced gold. The nose of this Loire white is ultraclean and displays noteworthy substance for Muscadet. There are inflections of citrus and Crenshaw melon. The palate is more restrained and medium weight, upfront rather than lasting. The finish is marked by racy acidity and a mouthwatering saline conclusion. A value at $12.99 retail or less. Just the ticket for oysters or clams on the half shell with mignonette, shrimp salad with fresh dill, or ceviche. — Roger Bohmrich MW

Domaine des Bretaudies, producer of "La Berriere" is situated 20km south of Nantes in the Cotes de Grandlieu AOC near the lake called 'Lac de Grand Lieu' which has an impact on the climate of the 195 acres vineyard. Not far from the Atlantic Ocean the maritime influence is notable and helps, together with the lake, to mature the grapes earlier than the rest of the Muscadet area. Sylvain, together with his wife Magaly, continued the hard labor of his father and grandfather but with a new style. They both are in their early forties and have a great depth of knowledge for making traditional
