Chateau du Trignon Cotes du Rhone

Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre

Chateau du Trignon Cotes du Rhone has an intense ruby color with a nose and palate that show off strawberries, redcurrants and a hint of garrigue. Smooth and well-balanced on the palate. A soft, fruity wine.

Vine Age: 30 years

Soils: Stone, clay and limestone

Many of the vines come from the Plan de Dieu; combined with the old vine age this is truly a superior Cotes du Rhone

The wine pairs perfectly with BBQ, Pizza, Burgers or on its own.

91 Points James Suckling 2015

A delicious Rhone red with meat, berries, earth and hints of cedar character. Medium-bodied, firm and fresh at the finish. Drink or hold.

The wine estate of Chateau du Trignon was acquired in 1895 by Joseph Roux and run by his descendants until 2007, when Pascal Roux, a passionate winemaker, who had kept the quality of the wine at the highest levels, sold the vineyard to another esteemed Rhone Valley winemaker, Jerome Quiot, who also owns and runs Domaine du Vieux Lazaret in Chateauneuf du Pape and Domaine Houchart in Provence. The wine is made from 150 acres of vines in six villages: Gigondas, Vacqueyras, Rasteau, Sablet, Plan de Dieu and Beaumes de Venise.
