Lucie Dutron Macon Villages

Vintage: 2017

The Lucie Dutron Macon Villages is a blending of vines in Viré, Péronne and Verzé as the production in each is too small for their own bottlings.

The wine is rich with good intensity. It is round and supple on the palate with good minerality and a long finish.

Grape Varietals: Chardonnay

Vine Age: 20-45 years

Soils: Clay and limestone

Food Pairing: as an aperitif, Shell fish or goat cheese

Lucie, with her husband Stephane have been making their own wine since 2007. In fact Lucie's family has been making wine since at least 1835 when they established Chateau Vitallis where Lucie's brother is now in charge of winemaking. They practice sustainable agriculture and care for 24 hectare in the towns of Clessé, Viré, Péronne and Verzé.
